VOL. IV. NO. 46.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

METROPOLITAN WEIGHTS.

The Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park is annually the first highly important handicap of the eastern turf and ranks only below the Brooklyn and Suburban. Over its mile and an eighth route it has been productive of some memorable contests, but none equal to that heart-breaking flight of electric speed that marked it in 1891, when Tristan defeated such great stars of the turf as Tenny, Clarendon, Riley, Senorita, Ambulance and Tournament in 1:51½.

This year it has a fine entry list. The weights announced yesterday are as follows:

Ben Holladay.....126	Blue Devil.....104
Tillo.....126	Hardball.....104
Dr. Catlett.....124	Caldron.....104
Don d'Oro.....122	Michael III.....102

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The declaration of Hamburg from the Kentucky Derby indicates that the great son of Hanover will not be raced in the west this year. It will be a welcome relief to owners of other promising three-year-olds to whom Hamburg was the lion in the path. The first effect is to make Plaudit a very hot favorite for the Kentucky Derby, altogether too hot when it is remembered that there are quite a number of three-year-olds in the west that finished in front of Plaudit last year in various races.

The Pacific Coast Jockey Club announces that in future 2-year-olds must be thoroughly schooled at the starting gate before starting in a race. The assistant starter will be in charge of this gate to render such assistance as is necessary and only upon a favorable report from him will entries be accepted. No entry will be accepted from any stable not provided with a trainer's license.

Dave Sloan brought his string to Sheephead Bay a few days since and in response to a query said: "My horses are all in good shape. Lake Shore is as sound as a dollar now, and I have spoken for 'Skeets' Martin to ride him in the Brooklyn Handicap. He is in light at 103 pounds, and if fit will have a chance.

A Lexington dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer says it is reported there that Charley Patterson has sold Ornament to John Considine for $30,000. Considine is said to be representing Mr. William Whitney, of New York, all of which is important if true.

Monday night Secretary Parmer had already received over 600 entries to the Northern Circuit stakes, with so many points to hear from that he confidently expects to have an aggregate of more than 1400. W. Hendrie alone has made 73 nominations.

Ed Purser is nearly out of luck. Buckwa has been blistered, Yankee Doodle is broken down, Scarf Pin is dickey and Perseus has developed a racing bone.—San Francisco Examiner.

Colonel M. Lewis Clark will be presiding judge at Memphis. His associates will probably be selected from the club directors.

Jesse Hart is to ride for Middleton and Jungbluth, who are the owners of Taluca, Eugenia Wickes, Afamada and other good ones.

Nashville is minus a starter so far, and search for a competent man to fill the position is in progress.

ST. LOUIS OWNED HORSES.

Concerning horses owned by St. Louis turfmen, the Republic says:

"Barney Schreiber's big band of 2-year-olds at his farm in St. Louis County are reported to be in excellent shape. The big Balgowan—Ohio Belle colt has had all the surplus fat worked off him and is now as hard as nails. Miss Marion, a beautiful bay filly by Himyar, is exceedingly promising, and the Balgowan—Pennyroyal colt is another one in high favor with the stable hands. Sain and a dozen broodmares purchased by Mr. Schreiber in California this winter will arrive at the farm shortly.

"A lot of stuff has been printed in the papers lately about Charley Patterson's wonderful two-year-old filly May Hempstead, by Patron—Lillie Hempstead. May Hempstead won the Bayonet Stakes and another race at New Orleans and is now being touted as the filly of the year. She was shipped south from Memphis. J. C. Cahn of St. Louis has a filly at Memphis that can give May Hempstead cards and spades, so the Memphis rail birds state. The filly in question is the beautiful chestnut by Chance—Playingfields, that carried off the blue ribbon at the St. Louis Fair last fall. She certainly is a gem of the first water. Her dam, Playingfields, is the mother of that good race horse, Hurlingham.

"John Huffman, another St. Louis horseman, thinks he will be able to give May Hempstead a game if she comes to the St. Louis meeting. Huffman has a full sister to the famous Deerfoot, by Hindoo—Dreamland, that is said to be as fast as a ghost. Another filly in the Huffman string out of the famous Tulla Blackburn, is highly thought of. Her mother certainly was a race mare of the first class, and if Huffman's two-year-old can run anywhere near as fast as her mother could, Johnny will certainly have a corn cracker. What'er Lou, Our Chance, Dare II and the rest of the older horses in the Huffman stable have wintered well and should be heard from early this spring.

"Louis A. Cella and Joseph Sippy left for Hot Springs last night. On their way south they will stop over in Little Rock and have a look at Bill Sippy's string at Clinton Park. Bill has Assignee, Merry Monarch, Achieve, Whirlaway, Doctor G, and other well known performers in his stable. These horses were wintered in St. Louis and were shipped to Little Rock about two weeks ago.

"J. H. Payne, the East St. Louis stockman, is having his good horse Harry Duke prepared over the Madison track. Harry Duke is in the Montgomery Handicap, to be run the first day of the Memphis spring meeting, and his owner will probably ship him south for this stake. The distance is one mile and a sixteenth, and the handicapper has placed 108 on Harry Duke. The report that Dr. Bernays had bought Harry Duke was a mistake. The doctor was negotiating for the horse, but he could not see his way clear to pay the price demanded by Mr. Payne.

"The Hasbrouck yearlings at Goodwood are a grand looking lot. Eddie Gaines went out to see the old horse when he was in St. Louis recently and expressed himself as being greatly pleased over his condition. He wrote Billy Barrick of New York that Hasbrouck was in great shape, and his first batch of youngsters were the finest ever seen around this country. Mr. Lucas states that he will probably dispose of the Hasbrouck youngsters in New York."

Benamela sulked. He is a coward and uncertain nowadays. Gallant, though good, was not at his best. The others were outclassed in the going.

Time, 251, 511, 1:041, 1:171.

Winner—Ch. c, by Sir Modred—Fidelity.
Start good. Won pulled up. Hermoso was far the best to-day. Is a mud lark and right on edge. Lee is in good condition. Likes a route and a dry track best. He is a game horse. Bernays likes weight off and a soft track. He quit when challenged by Lee. Allie Belle is but a sprinter. Is in good shape, though, and the going suited. Dipper needs a strong rider. Likes mud and a route. The Ace was badly ridden. As was Plan also. Don't count his race. Al Koran was unfit and pulled up in the stretch.

Start good. Briar Sweet was much the best and won in a canter. She is a good one in soft going. Napamax was interfered with on the first turn but made up her ground and ran an honest race. Torsida likes a hard track best. Bonito is good and ran to her mark. Martha II was not at her best. Recreation was placed badly and is not fit yet.

Lena is good and ran to her mark. Fulano was short and prefers a shorter route. Throw out Kamins's race. It was not his day. Amelia Fonso is a jade.
